THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN

—FOUNDED IN 1955—

IN DEFENSE OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

Dear Fellow American:

The paper you hold in your hand -- THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN -- is an independent, national, Conservative newspaper, now in its twentieth year of publication.

Regardless of the number of publications you now subscribe to -- you need THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN in order to get the full picture -- nationally. Look over this copy of the IND/AM. Doesn't it contain news that is "news" to you -- news that the Liberal-controlled press is trying to keep from the American people?

The nation is finally waking up to the failure of the Liberal policies of both national political parties. But this glorious country of ours will only be returned to Constitutional government when Conservatives -- regardless of party label -- unite.

This, then, is the purpose of THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN.

If you want to receive information giving you the true picture regarding what is really going on in this country; if you want pro-Conservative information, which is being blacked out by the Leftwing-controlled press, then you will want to subscribe to THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN.

In order to be on our subscriber list to receive the IND/AM on a regular basis, please fill out the coupon below and attach your check or money order.

Sincerely,

Phoebe Courtney

Why subscribers renew their subscriptions to THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN

When we recently sent out renewal notices we requested that those wishing to renew their subscriptions tell us why they were renewing. Below are just a few excerpts from the many letters we received. You will note that these comments have been segregated by geographical regions. You may be interested in comments from your section of the country, as well as from other sections.

After reading the following freely offered statements about this paper, we hope that you will wish to subscribe immediately.

NORTHEAST

"The controlled A.P. and U.P.I. media can no longer be trusted to print the truth. Their slanted version of the news no longer interests me." -Mrs. F.K., Latrobe, Pa.

"It contains articles which for the most part cannot be found in other publications. They are almost without exception excellent." -Mr. H.K., Hopewell Junction, N.Y.

"Where else can one get the truth as we know it to be -- real Americans, for God and country? Your editorials are superb, and indicate a great deal of research and in-depth study to get the facts without fear of reprisals," Mr. H.S., Kensington, Conn.

"The articles are concise and to the point. The editorial reprints from other periodicals and dailies give a good overall view of feelings throughout the nation." -Mr. J.K., Perth Amboy, N.J.

"It's the only way to keep abreast of the real news. Especially interested in watching the progress of Governor George Wallace -- a real American." -Mrs. R.G., Springfield, Vt.

SOUTH

"It is the one publication which assembles in one place the Conservative opinions of men and women throughout this nation and gives us the courage to go on fighting to preserve our Constitution despite the efforts of the Liberals who pretend to represent the majority of freedom-loving Americans." -Mrs. W.B., Baltimore, Md.

"I read THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN because we get information no paper in this area prints and is straightforward with no radical-exciting or superfluous buildup. News and facts anyone can understand and appreciate." -Mr. E.D., Falcon, N.C.

"I believe this paper can do more good for the Conservative cause, because it gives the facts as they are that are quoted from other papers all over the country. They are not sensational as in some papers and more believeable by the "doubtful" public readers. You are not afraid to "Stand up for America" and those like Gov. Wallace, Congressman Rarick and others who uphold our Constitution and traditions." -Mrs. M.D., Baton Rouge, La.

MID-CONTINENT

"It is election year and I want to know what is going on." -Mrs. E.H., Minneapolis, Minn.

"I like your "digest" of Conservative articles and/or writers. As Republicans, we receive nothing except glowing praise for all aspects of the Nixon Administration. Your paper provides us some of the undesirable aspects." -Mrs. D.P., Sioux City, Ia.

"It's also a paper you don't put down until you have read it all. Keep it up." -Mr. H.H., Joliet, Ill.

"Got to have it! So as to get at least some of the facts missing from the managed news media! So as to be informed about things that never get in the news at all. And to have information I can pass on to others with confidence in its accuracy." -Mr. L.B., Breckenridge, Mich.

"(1) I have learned that I can trust the news in this paper. (2) I get more important political news in a single edition than I could get in months by finding an article accidentally now and then in other papers." -Mr. E.T., Argo, Ill.

"I will be very interested in the news concerning coverage of the campaign of Gov. George Wallace. While we will be working here, we will be interested in knowing what is happening elsewhere and we know we will be able to get the truth from your paper. STAND UP FOR AMERICA!" -Mr. G.H., Rochester, Minn.

WEST

"I compare what your writers have to say with my local paper, with television news, and what our President and Congressman are doing. Your paper shows and tells what these men are doing instead of what they are saying." -Mr. G.J., Canton, Okla.

"Your paper gives balance to the normally Liberal daily press. We like your inside "scoops"! -Mr. A.H., Saratoga, Calif.

"I have always enjoyed reading your paper. It brings out the true facts. I supported George Wallace in '68 and will do it again in '72 , win or lose." -Mr. H.H., Camas, Wash.

"We need honest, revealing news -- and we get it in your paper. We are weary and fearful of the slanted, positioned and perverted "news" we get in daily papers. All you can confidently believe in them is the obituaries, and that only if you go to the funeral! God save our country -- God bless you for helping!" -Mr. & Mrs. F.K., Tyler, Tex.

Is Jimmy Carter really The Great American? - Or - The Great Deceiver?

Jimmy Carter made a speech in 1974 at a University of Georgia Law Day ceremony. According to TIME (5-10-76, p. 20), this speech was recorded and Carter said that a "source of my understanding about what's right and wrong in this society is from a friend of mine, a poet named Bob Dylan. After listening to his records . . . I've learned to appreciate the dynamism of change in a modern society."

Gregg Allman also likes Carter. Rock stars are the fat cats of 1976. (Newsweek, 5-31-76)

Bob Dylan is one of the leading troubadours of "change" by the Communist Party, U.S.A.! He is acclaimed by the Communist music publishers in America for his "songs of social significance!"

Communist song-writers in the U.S. and their pro-Communist music publishers have dominated the rock-folk music field, calling it "the soul music of our sidewalks," according to the Communist paper, THE WORKER (3-9-65). TIME magazine (9-17-65, p. 102) admitted that "folk rock owes its origins to Bob Dylan, folk music's most celebrated contemporary composer."

THE FACT FINDER

Vol. 34, No. 19 Phoenix, Ariz. Aug. 16, 1976

Published twice monthly, 2nd-class postage paid at Phoenix, AZ (2422 E. Indian School Rd., 85016). Subscription: $6.50 per year, or two subs. for $10. 34th Year of Publication

"Rainy Day Woman" by Bob Dylan was taken off the air by many radio stations because of its drug implications, according to TIME Magazine (7-1-66, p. 56).

Newsweek Magazine (9-20-65, p. 88) called Bob Dylan "the Patrick Henry of this revolution . . . a bony, prophet-haired poet of protest." As a fellow-traveler of the Communists, he composed and sang their revolutionary songs via radio to the youth of America. His record album, "Freewheelin'," made Dylan a national figure and LIFE Magazine published a feature article, describing Dylan as "sloppy, disheveled, unshaven . . . talks angrily and irreverently." (4-10-64, p. 109)

Not only is Bob Dylan the hero of the Communists, he is also to Jimmy Carter a "source of my understanding about what's right and wrong in this society."

Carter also has a top economic aide who has admitted being a Communist. More on that later.

Jimmy Carter is feeling his strength. He says he will rout the Republican Party in November. He knows he has the "liberal" vote. He has at least 73% of the black vote. He has been told he will get the overwhelming majority vote of the labor unions. And he has his fellow Southern Baptists who constitute the largest, single Protestant denomination in the U.S.

Carter strategists claim that he will bring in at least 30 more new Democratic Congressmen by defeating that many of the few Republicans left in Congress.

This could result in a one-party government where the Democrats already have two-thirds control of the Senate and the House of Representatives, and will control the Executive Branch of the government under the presidency as well. This can mean the appointment of many more new Democrats as federal judges and, again, a repacking of the Supreme Court as openings arise.

What is the solution to this problem? The only answer is the truth. Before the majority of the American people vote for him in ignorance in November, they must be given the facts about Carter - what he is and what he intends to do with America.

Former Georgia Governor Lester Maddox stated recently in the Atlanta Constitution (6-16-76) that he could not support Carter: "I think he's got the thing wrapped up. He's made history. It's regrettable that he's not an honest man."

THE FACT FINDER has been written and published twice monthly for over 33 years, in Chicago and now Phoenix, by Harry T. Everingham. Mr. Everingham is national president of WE, THE PEOPLE, and editor and publisher of the national newspaper, FREE ENTERPRISE.

Fact Finder Subscriptions - 24 Issues - $6.50 2 for $10 - Box 10555, Phoenix, Ariz. 85064. - 34th Year of Publication -

Maddox said that he was not surprised that Carter did so well in the primaries. "Because he is a radical and because of his ability to deceive the American people. . . A Carter Administration would be far more to the left than that of Franklin Roosevelt or Lyndon Johnson. We'll see the erosion of government and the growth of bureaucracy under Carter."

Carter's close friendship with Martin Luther King Sr. protected him from his "ethnic purity" statement. (TIME, 6-21-76)

Many people plan to vote for Carter because they consider him a Bible-believing Christian. A national network news show interviewed Mr. Carter recently on the subject of his religion. Carter started out by expressing himself well. But, when the interviewer quoted from Ephesians 5:22-24, about wives being in subjection to their husbands, and asked his view on that, Carter at first refused to answer. Then he finally stated that he just couldn't go along with that principle. So Carter won't accept the Bible there. This could cause him trouble. But he thinks, as a candidate, he would have a lot more trouble from the women's libbers and the ERA Amendment if he did agree with the Bible on that statement.

But Carter has more people fooled into believing he's a conservative.

When Jimmy Carter gets up smiling and talks about love - we know now that he means welfare.

He knows that you must have great love for your fellow man to pay the painful taxes and face the high inflation that this welfare socialism costs us.

He went through it during his term as governor of Georgia: The records show that taxes increased more during his one term than in the terms of all three previous governors and the one that followed him. When Carter was governor, personal income taxes were forced up 33-1/3%. In 1974 the state legislature passed a tax relief bill that would rebate $50 million to the property owners - but Carter vetoed it!

During Carter's single term as governor, state employment rose 20% - from 49,000 to 60,000 - and the Georgia state budget was increased by more than one billion dollars (61%) during his term as governor.

The Democratic Party platform was designed to please Jimmy Carter. As we study it, we know what he stands for:

Carter has promised enough love to expand the number on welfare - and to give all welfare people a "Guaranteed Annual Income" - with more of our tax money.

He has promised more billions to be spent on revenue sharing - more aid to the cities - more transportation subsidies - more housing subsidies - and a whole new breakthrough in child day care centers - all with your tax money or inflationary deficit spending, or both!

He has promised love for the National Education Association by pouring billions more in federal funds into the education establishment. He has even promised them a seat in his cabinet.

His love will also include a universal national health insurance program - with more tax money from you.

Carter has also lovingly endorsed the Humphrey-Hawkins "Full Employment" bill and this will use up more tens of billions of dollars each year.

Carter will even show his love for Ralph Nader by spending billions more each year on a new consumer protection agency - with more tax-love from you.

Carter shows that he also loves the bureaucrats by making more of them, and he loves the welfare people by making more of them - even if, at the same time, he breaks the backs of us taxpayers. That's socialism - love in bloom!

Jimmy Carter also loves the labor bosses. He has made a deal with them to get their help in which he will support legislation that will let them force millions of unwilling, non-union workers into union shops. He has also agreed to pass the Common Situs Picketing bill which will permit a small union with a single grievance to shut down an entire construction project. This can ruin the construction industry and force much higher construction costs upon every family that wants to buy a home and upon every consumer who must pay the costs of business and industry through the products and services he purchases.

This is ever-loving socialism.

And all this vast increase in federal spending will bring about greater federal power and more federal controls over every one of us.

The only place that Carter will economize is in National Defense. He has no love for national security against the Soviets, who are now more strongly armed than we are.

Who will be Carter's economist in all this? His good friend, Lawrence Klein, who taught in two Communist schools - the Samuel Adams School in Boston, and the Abraham Lincoln School in Chicago. It was at the latter that he joined the Communist Party, later leaving it because he found it "dull," but admitting that he still follows socialism.

Another close adviser to Jimmy Carter will be Mary King, who has influenced him for years. She was an active radical in the South in 1963. It was then and there that she spent Christmas in jail in Atlanta because she broke the law for a black who was also a radical.

Carter's foreign policy adviser and probably his Secretary of State will be (like Kissinger) another foreign-born college professor, Zhigniew Brzezinski, who is a David Rockefeller man and will do for Carter exactly what Kissinger has done for Ford, Nixon and the U.S.A.

It was Kissinger's top aid, Dr. Helmut Sonnenfeldt, who made a speech to U.S. ambassadors in Europe that shocked the nation. In his speech, he said that East Europe should be and was an organic part of the Soviet Union. But, 13 years earlier, Dr. Brzezinski's article in "The New Republic" said the very same thing and also conceded to the Soviet Union "a stake" in all of Central Europe as well.

Carter himself has a very strong Rockefeller connection. When he was a little-known governor of a Southern state, he was picked to serve on the Trilateral Commission, organized by David Rockefeller, to study the problems of international socialism and the goal of bringing the United States under world government. Zhigniew Brzezinski headed this Trilateral Commission at that time. That's how he and Carter met.

This will mean Rockefeller appointments to "assist" Carter in his administration.

But Carter's love goes beyond the Rockefeller family. As governor of Georgia, he appointed 53 blacks to supervisory boards during his administration. Even now, 13% of his campaign payroll is black. This is how he expects to get the additional votes in many states in order to be elected. He promises that there will be blacks in his cabinet to help run this huge bureaucracy of welfare socialism.

Carter promises "a different opportunity for blacks than ever before." He even spoke of the possibility of having a black as his vice president. That may come in his second term.

A recent New York Times poll indicated that if a Carter-Ford race were held today, the two men would split the white vote. But Carter would carry 73% of the black vote - more than enough to make him president.

While Carter did not select a black as vice president this term, he selected Senator Mondale of Minnesota, the most liberal of the seven men he had under consideration.

Mondale was a protege of Hubert Humphrey, one of the most extreme liberals in the Senate. Mondale's voting record is very much like Humphrey's. The socialistic Americans for Democratic Action gave Mondale a score of 94% for 1975. The conservative Americans for Constitutional Action gave Mondale a voting record of just 4% out of a possible 100%. Walter "Fritz" Mondale is as liberal as they come, and that's why Carter picked him to serve as vice president within a heartbeat of the presidency.

To get an idea what kind of man Senator Walter Mondale is, he sponsored a bill last year called, "The Child and Family Service Act of 1975." It is a radical bill that seems designed to destroy the home. It would give children the right to refuse to obey parents and demand payment for any work they did at home.

It would give the state (through the bureaucrats who administer it) the power to make decisions in any area of the child's life, taking the place of parents' decisions. Under the bill parents could be reported to authorities for expressing themselves in their own homes regarding politics and religion, if the child chose to do so. This would be grounds for removing the child from the home.

In short, it takes away the right of a parent to form the character of his own children and gives control of the family over to the government.

This bill was actually passed in 1971, but Richard Nixon vetoed it. To think that our Congress could even consider such a bill should make every God-loving adult seriously consider just what kind of a government we have today.

When Carter becomes President, the day of vetoes will be over. A socialistic Congress plus a socialistic President will create a socialist dictatorship in America. Isn't it time that we bring these facts to the attention of all patriotic people?

Every Politician in America Needs to Get The Message From WE, THE PEOPLE!

You say you have lost faith in politicians; you are losing hope that this country can be saved; you are almost to the point of resolving not to vote for anyone.

You feel that your vote may not be worth anything in November's election; you may be right - if you wait until then to act.

Our country must be saved within the next two months; you can help to save it by influencing others - showing them how to exert their combined influence upon candidates. Now is the time for us to mold the convictions of the candidates - not after the election.

There's an old saying that if a machine doesn't work you should re-read the original instructions; the instructions for making this country work right are the U.S. Constitution and its Bill of Rights; every candidate should be firmly bound to the principles and safeguards of the Constitution before the majority of citizens will vote for him. This is most urgent if we are to have Constitutional government to save our freedom.

We, the people, as our founding fathers called themselves, wrote the Constitution and ratified it for the purpose of building a nation of laws with justice for all and not a nation run by the whims of men. They went further than that in placing checks and balances against the power of the men who would serve this nation. These restrictions upon their power have been ignored; that is why we have bureaucratic government and runaway inflation today.

It is time for we, the people to speak up and lay it on the line now to candidates for office and bind them down by the chains of the Constitution. Thomas Jefferson said, "Let no more be heard about confidence in man but bind him down from mischief by the chains of the constitution."

The Message

We, the people, want public servants in our government - not masters.

We, the people, as our founding fathers called themselves, wrote and ratified the U.S. Constitution to run our government by; we, the people, today instruct our representatives to use this Constitution again and to uphold it, and not change the nature of our government.

We, the people, want a President and Representatives who will do the following faithfully:

* Arm this country second to none for our national defense.
* Keep our schools free from professional agitators who seek to propagandize the minds of our children to accept a socialistic world government.
* Keep our consumers free from run-away inflation which is largely caused by deficit spending of the federal government.
* Keep all Americans free for the opportunities and advantages of the free enterprise system without government controls and regulations that destroy freedom.
* Keep our people free to select their own work and not have to depend on government bureaucrats for jobs.

We, the people, want statesmen who will:

* Keep our people free from unjust taxation that steals their earnings with false promises that the government can do more for them than they can do for themselves.

* Keep our states and local governments free from federal controls and regimentation imposed through federal subsidies.

* Give our people the right to work in freedom from labor agitation or strong-arm union bosses - and the right to decide whether to join or not to join a union.

* Keep our productive free enterprise system free from the attacks of the Marxists who hate capitalism and constantly strive to destroy it.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF OUR FREEDOM

We, the people, want statesmen who will:

* Keep our government free of all socialistic schemes that would eventually lead to a dictatorship and enslave us.

* Keep our children free from forced school bussing which only creates racial turmoil.

* Keep our schools and colleges free from the teaching of the anti-God religion, Humanism, which would destroy our future generations' faith to follow in the faith of our fathers, which made this country great.

* Keep our business and industry free from those forces who use ecology as a means of impeding the progress of the American Way of Life.

* Keep our oil industry free from restrictions for the discovery and development of more oil to satisfy America's energy needs.

* Keep the foundations of our freedom strong so that no one within this country or without can take it over as their private dictaship to enslave the American people.

This is The Message of Americans today.

But Carter links himself with Mondale, Reagan linked himself with Schweiker, and now Ford tries to win re-election while continuing to let Rockefeller's man, Kissinger, initiate and control our nation's foreign policy. This proves that politicians are still not getting The Message.

Candidates may "parrot" the American public's words against the big, bloated and swelling "liberal" establishment, but they don't get The Message. We, the people, are fed up with and economically depressed by the costs of the politicians' programs that promise so much and always end up costing so much more than promised.

We, the people, don't like bureaucracies and the way they run our lives, businesses and our government. Nor do we like the courts forcing law-abiding citizens to submit to their mandates while allowing the law-breakers to profit from their crimes. And we don't like the Love-The-Enemy and Betray-Our-Allies foreign policies that have turned love and trust for Americans into distrust and fear of the American government.

The goals of liberalism have been taught so thoroughly in our schools and colleges, along with ridicule of capitalism and our Constitutional government, that many of our young people today have been turned into outright liberals, if not un-American radicals. Our country is suffering for this.

PRESERVE YOUR CONSTITUTION

"Hold on, my friends to the Constitution of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands. Miracles do not cluster, what has happened once in six thousand years may never happen again. Hold on to your Constitution for if the American Constitution should fall there will be anarchy throughout the world."
-- Daniel Webster

America is on the brink of socialism. Socialistic schemes are already costing us high taxes and ever-higher inflation. Our American freedom is in danger.

Too many politicians have fallen for socialist promises and lies. Socialists have even been elected to Congress, but they still call themselves Democrats. Or a few, Republicans.

So with a pro-socialist Congress, neither presidential candidate - Carter or Ford - can give us anything else but more of the same. Carter will go along with them. Ford can veto their new socialist schemes, but a two-thirds' vote of Congress can over-ride his veto.

If the GOP dies, the American Party could become our new second party - and finally the first party for good Americans. The Democratic Party already controls a two-thirds' majority of both houses of Congress. If Carter wins this year, he could carry more socialist Democrats into Congress. This could kill the Republican Party for sure.

But it could also produce a one-party dictatorship for all-out socialism under cruel and brutal bureaucratic controls.

The American people need to know about this now. Then they can stop it at the polls before it's too late. We need to warn them that Carter has already asked Congress to pass a bill for postcard registration. This bill invites fraud, as it can be used to register fictitious people to be voted against the real voters who rebel against their tax money being used for more socialist spending that creates more run-away inflation.

So we also need an important message to the American voters right now. We need to help them see this picture before it becomes a grim reality.

"HOW CAN YOU EXPECT ALMIGHTY GOD TO SAVE YOU AND YOUR LOVED ONES FROM THE HORRORS OF COMMUNIST TYRANNY, WHEN YOU REFUSE TO RAISE YOUR VOICE IN PROTEST AGAINST THE FLAGRANT TREASON THAT IS BRINGING THOSE HORRORS UPON YOU?"

CONCENTRATE ON CONGRESS

We must tell our friends and neighbors who are real Americans, and not "liberals," how important it is to concentrate on candidates to Congress in this election. Let each candidate have this message and ask him pointblank what stand he will take on the issues listed here in order to return this nation to Constitutional government and America's free enterprise system INSTEAD OF SOCIALISM.

Get your loyal, patriotic friends to help you on this and we can elect a patriotic Congress, regardless of party, while we are voting for an American for President!

America's Greatest Problem

TOO MANY AMERICANS have left the solution of all of our problems up to our government, not realizing that our government today is not the same that originally upheld the three basic foundations of our freedom: 1) Our faith in God; 2) our Constitutional Republic; and 3) our productive Free Enterprise System. What's more, left-wing pressure groups are pushing us even farther away from the form of government we need to protect us and save our freedom.

To complicate matters further, the President can do little to improve things because the majority of both houses of Congress are against him. Furthermore, the majority of Americans fail to understand the problems of the nation or of the President because they depend largely upon the TV networks for their news - and this is strongly slanted against the President's position in regard to upholding these basic foundations of our American freedom and civilization.

But every American can do something about this:

What You Can Do

1) You can learn America's current problems and study Action Plans for patriots through FREE ENTERPRISE, our monthly newspaper. You can encourage others to join efforts with us to inform people, both young and old, in time to win the next national and local elections. Subscribe to FREE ENTERPRISE for $6 now.

2) With our FACT FINDER pamphlets you can bring people the truth on many different issues. Encourage them to use the FACT FINDER to enlighten their own friends and neighbors. Subscriptions are just $7 for 24 issues, or two subscriptions for $11.

3) Every member of WE, THE PEOPLE ($14.50 a year) receives both the FACT FINDER and FREE ENTERPRISE - also timely Action Bulletins to build public opinion among friends to write Congress to offset left-wing pressure groups influencing Congress today.

Left-wing pressure groups are strongly organized to flood Congress with hundreds of thousands of letters on very short notice. With good organization, the good people of America can do the same.

For years left-wing "liberals" have infiltrated our schools and colleges, church organizations and news media, including radio and TV, movies, etc. to confuse the American people, young and old, in order to advance radical ideas that undermine and destroy American ideals. WE, THE PEOPLE publications and programs expose and oppose these radical aims. Help us.

Is Ronald Reagan Real?

By Captain Joe H. Ferguson

(Reprinted from UTAH INDEPENDENT)

Having had our fingers burned by double-talking, lying politicians in the past, many of us look at all politicians with a skeptical eye. And indeed it is wise to be cautious. But then, one can become so "cautious" that he magnifies the faults of a person to a point of ignoring his attributes. Just how to balance the scales between gullibility and being overcritical is difficult to determine. Nevertheless, this balance must be achieved to view a matter or a person in proper perspective.

The leading Conservative candidate for the presidency, Ronald Reagan, is a political figure who has been the object of some allegations which raise questions regarding whether he is genuine. This writer does not presume to know, without a shadow of a doubt, whether Reagan is or is not genuine. However, the context of a conversation between this writer and Congressman George V. Hansen from Idaho should be interesting to the readers of this column. George is one politician in whom I have complete trust, both regarding his ability and integrity. I have learned to respect and value his judgments.

During a recent phone conversation, George described to or uncover any areas of doubt. After this intimate and penetrating discussion, George concludes that Reagan is genuine. Furthermore, George said that I could quote him in this article to you readers of the UTAH INDEPENDENT. In addition (and possibly of more gravity), George's wife, Connie, also advised me that she was very favorably impressed with Reagan. Connie accompanied Governor Reagan and George on the tour of Idaho.

All of the above does not mean that George Hansen cannot be fooled and it does not mean that Joe Ferguson cannot be fooled. However, we must all make our own judgments on the information available to us. And the above does not imply that Ronald Reagan is the perfect Conservative candidate. It just means, in the opinions of Congressman Hansen and this writer, that Ronald Reagan is like the majority of the rest of us -- he is trying to do the best with what can be done under the present circumstances.

Whatever the critics of Ronald Reagan might say, and regardless of the fact that there might be some element of truth to some of the allegations, we must all admit that Reagan has managed to accomplish some

FORD CAN'T WIN

By William Loeb

(Reprinted from MANCHESTER (N.H.) UNION LEADER)

The nomination of Gerald Ford by the Republicans would be a sure road to disaster in the November elections.

President Ford has won his primary victories in States that will never vote Republican this fall.

In the States where the Republicans can win this fall, and have been winning pretty consistently, Ronald Reagan is the overwhelming choice.

In that simple fact lies the reason why President Ford cannot win in November, and why the only chance the Republicans have of possibly defeating the Democratic candidate is to nominate Ronald Reagan.

Here is the record:

Gerald Ford has won his delegates in Massachusetts, Maryland, Minnesota, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island. But the Republican Party, as Patrick Buchanan said in a recent column, doesn't have a snowball's chance of carrying those places in the November elections.

In the Sunbelt, which the Republicans can carry, and very often do, Ford was wiped out by Reagan. In the South, the same thing happened. As Pat Buchanan says, after losing Texas, Arkansas, Georgia, and Alabama to Reagan two to one,

William Loeb

Ronald Reagan is strong, you will find that he would only need one other single major State, such as Ohio, Illinois or New Jersey, for victory in the Electoral College.

As we said before, Mr. Ford has all the charisma of a football tackling dummy. On the basis of comparing personalities, he would stand absolutely no chance of winning the election in November against Jimmy Carter, or any other middle-of-the-road, attractive Democrat.

In addition to the matter of lack of charisma, the cold political facts are that President Ford does not have the votes in the States which he must carry to win in November.
