"A Public Affair - Election '72"

9.20.72

Dear Mr. Johnson:

You complain about the Govern changing too much. If you'd followed Nixon closely his campaign & first 2 years. Changes were bewildering & in fact the Pres. often made a decision one day & flip-flopped the next so that his own group said he was voting or deciding against his own half the time. Later he got in line & its been Big Biz all the way.

One of your first remarks on the TV show appalled me. I mean, you're intelligent, sincere & honest, yet when you said how honest & sincere Nixon is irregardless of some of his policies, I knew you didn't have any idea of how Nixon won his 1st seat in Congress & ever since, which I'll leave it to you to look up in news files, or certain books help too.

Do you approve of I.T.T. whose list of companies long as one's arm, controls every thing one does & now Kleindienst is in the so-called Justice dept. you'll find that every attempt to get facts, or a just conviction against some G.O.P. will be muffled or erased.

I like you, Mr. Johnson, & I do hope you will realize that when a man changes his mind for the country's good thats good. When he changes to grab votes thats bad. I believe the media emphasizes wrong things about Mr. G. & "make Nixon look good" about N. Since 95% of America's newspapers (& all the non-network radio & TV, almost) are Big Biz/Republican owned.

I can remember when people said it was a miracle Mr. Truman was elected, according to headlines all across the country no such man as Truman existed.

Well, my son, & probably you're of an age to be, I hope that your wish to preserve the 2-party system is as strong as mine, in Nov. From a former Republican, (Stiles in name only)
