Dear Richard, MaryAnn, kids + cats,

Thank you so much for the sweater and hat for Jodi. She really needs clothes in larger sizes as she is growing so fast her entire wardrobe is soon to be obsolete. She is a pretty good little girl and only throws one temper tantrum a day.

I finally saw your TV performance, Dom, and was quite impressed! Poor old McGovern didn't get the reaction he thought from you, I'm sure. Maybe now Nixon will take you on a campaign trip. I hope the names weren't changed in the enclosed article to protect the innocent!

We're looking forward to you all coming down to visit us one of these days before the weather gets really rotten. Seems like we can never work in enough time to visit everyone when we get up to Chicago, and I'm afraid our trips will be fewer and fewer in between now that we have horses at home to be fed when we're gone.

Well, we'll see you for sure at Christmas if not before.

Thanks again for the pretty sweater set. Love, Peggy, Dan & Jodi
