Dear Mr. Johnson,

You say you "pray to God that the public will believe Pres. Nixon but you say you won't even if he says he's telling the truth". Aren't you part of the public you're praying for?

You surely don't believe one vote for a Republican makes you a Republican, do you? You truly did not vote for Nixon but voted AGAINST McGovern which is what you should always say to keep the record straight.

I'm probably no more or less intelligent than you as we, too, are Mid-Amer. - $14,000 a year. It didn't take too much thinking to realize if someone is offered a fair solution that was acceptable in the sight of all of those working with Cox and Cox refused - he should be fired as should any employee. As credit manager can you possibly see yourself taking any guff off an employee when you were in the right? Oh, come now. So who are you to judge Nixon?

There is Nixon with nothing truly PROVEN wrong that he has done - and there is Kennedy who was involved in a girl's death in Chappaquidicc. That was so hushed that even news reporters couldn't get in and never was a leak allowed out of the GrandJury. This man panicked at making a decision where one life was concerned and you would accept him over millions of lives? I can't believe it. Yet you can condemn Nixon.

And in case you think Carl Albert would be your idea of a president, you do know by now, I hope, of his fondness for the bottle to the extent he was arrested for drunken driving last year. Wow! What the Democrats don't have to offer. As far as I'm concerned and all of us who not only voted for Pres. Nixon but believe in him 100% because our faith in a person is a true faith - we would all have preferred that you had voted for McGovern. The two of you sounded just alike,

Yours truly,

M. J. Halorman
