Dear Mr. Johnson,

We read a interesting news item in the local paper regarding your answer to your preference in the race for President and was glad that you spoke well of President Nixon who will go down in history as the greatest President this country has ever seen, a real Horatio Alger of a poor boy on his own and pulling up his own boot-straps was given the greatest title any person could earn Yes President Nixon is a real pro for the benefit of all peoples, God must have placed him on high. We were surprised that a respectable family man such as yourself with nice children and a working man would prefer Ted Kennedy if he was running. This creep never worked a day in his life, cheated at Harvard University comes from a booze peddling family booze that has caused more headaches and heartaches and showed his true colors at Chappaquadick where he made the most cowardly act of leaving poor Mary Jo drown in the waters of Cape Cod and disappear for eight hours to sober up. That would be a catastrophy to have such a person as head of our beloved country when we have over 200 million people to pick from who are head and shoulders above this punk. Certainly you would never go on a week-end bender ~~with~~ with your cronies and five party girls, rent a cottage under an assumed name and wind up with the death of a young woman and possibley two others, while the wife is at home awaiting the birth of a baby he was to father. What respect did he show for the office he holds, his family, his church, friends etc. etc. God it turns my stomach to see persons make a hero out of such trash and to think he bought TV time to cover up the act. what an arrogant person. What kind of people in the party to let this man get away with such rotten business. The white-wash of the century must have cost a million dollars and the gift to the parents of poor Mary Jo. God if my daughter ever got in trouble with such a person the whole world would get the true story. There is a book on the newstands giving the inside of Chappaquidick. I am a travelling man and sent this out on my travels. Former Dem.
