Dear Dick,

At long last I am sending you a copy of the program. I am sorry for the delay but appreciate your patience. Now that the series is coming to an end, many things are finally getting!

I thank you for your participation in this year's programs--for being our guinea pig on not one but two occasions.

In retrospect, I realize that you were a soothsayer throughout the year; and we wasted our time running all over the country talking to people. All we needed to do was listen to you!

My thanks to you and my best to your family.

Sincerely,

E. Robert Lissit
