Richard Johnson of Rolling Meadows, Ill. (middle), a lifelong Democrat who admits he's thinking of voting Republican for the first time, nonetheless asked Democratic presidential candidate George McGovern for his autograph during a private interview as NPACT Correspondent Robert MacNeil looks on. Johnson, who recently spent a week traveling with McGovern, tells how a presidential campaign looks to Mr. Average American Voter on the weekly television series "A Public Affair/Election '72," produced by the National Public Affairs Center for Television (NPACT).

(Editors Note: The program will be transmitted nationwide to 223 public television stations by the Public Broadcasting Service at 8 p.m. EDT, Wednesday, September 20. Local television station listings must be consulted for correct broadcast times.)

from:

National Public Affairs Center for Television, Washington, D.C. -- 202/298-8726